SERIOUSLY SIMPLE. SENSIBLY SAFE.

Are you looking to provide guests, residents, or employees with a simple way to stay fit — without taking up a lot of space or hiring a staff of trainers to supervise their workouts?

The CYBEX MG-525 is a versatile multi-gym that offers biomechanically correct exercises for a full body workout in a sleek, compact, 67-square-foot package. Three people can get fit at the same time on this all-in-one gym. And all exercises were developed in coordination with the CYBEX Institute for Exercise Science — So they're safe to perform for everyone from serious strength trainers to those who just want to work up a sweat.

Now everyone can enjoy a complete workout on quality strength training equipment created by the fitness equipment company with a proven track record for rugged reliability and low-maintenance. The MG-525 is built to be used by everyday athletes and traveling superstars committed to getting and staying fit.

CYBEX MG-525 MULTI-GYM

SMALL FOOTPRINT. BIG TIME WORKOUTS.

The CYBEX MG-525 is an ideal centerpiece for facilities where space is at a premium, but fitness is a priority. Add a CYBEX Arc Trainer and Treadmill to complement this quality strength training station. You've now created a compact fitness facility where everyone can relax, recharge, and get ready for what's next.
